FIRST ANNUAL FARMERS' INSTITUTE
Will Be Held at Frankfort Under Auspices Agricultural Department.
FINE PROGRAM BEING ARRANGED.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 3.—Commissioner Vreeland, of the State Department of Agriculture, is preparing for the first annual State Farmers' Institute to be held at Frankfort, February 27 and 28 and March 1st under the auspices of his department, "for the development of Kentucky's agricultural and kindred interests."

The object of the State Farmers' Institute is to bring the farmers of the State into closer relation with each other and with the Department of Agriculture for their mutual benefit, to interchange ideas, to encourage legislation for the benefit of the farmers and to lift Kentucky to the forefront of agricultural States.

The Institute is to be the central body of farmers in the State and it is to be made a permanent institution. The local clubs or institutes are to become members of this body, and they will be expected to send delegates to the State Meetings to take part in the deliberations, and to present the needs of their respective counties. The State body will work in conjunction with the State Department of Agriculture and will serve to bring the farmers and the Department into close contact with one another to the end that the farmers may be enabled to get direct and substantial benefits from it.

While the programme has not yet been completed, some of the most eminent lecturers in the country have been invited to participate and it can confidently be said that it will be one of the most interesting programmes ever carried out in this State. Among those invited to attend are, Dr. Cyril G. Hopkins, of Illinois University; P. G. Holden, of Iowa; Joseph E. Wing, of Ohio; Gifford Pinchot, head of the National Department of Forestry; Prof. Jas. K. Patterson, of Kentucky State College; Prof. M. A. Sewall, director of the State Experiment Station, State Entomologist and other men of national reputation including a prominent road expert.

The Frankfort Business Men's Club will entertain the delegates at a banquet and other entertainment will be provided. The Legislature will still be in session and they will be invited to attend the Institute in a body.

New Firm for Madisonville.

Plain & Vickers is the style of a new harness and vehicle establishment in Madisonville. This firm has bought the interest of Mills & Son and will put in a large line of goods at once. This firm is composed of enterprising business men and they expect to carry a complete line of vehicles, saddlery and harness. Mr. Plain was formerly a member of the firm of Finley & Plain and Mr. Vickers has been with Charley Owen for a number of years. Both of these gentlemen have had considerable experience in business and will no doubt make a success of their new venture.

Pettus and Morgan Want Re-Election.

The oldest two senators, Morgan and Pettus, of Alabama, have announced their candidacy to succeed themselves. Gen. Pettus is 84, and will be 87 when his term expires in 1909. He served as a lieutenant in the Mexican war, crossed the continent on horseback in 1849 and served through the civil war, becoming a brigadier, later entering the practice of the law. Morgan is 81 and he also was a Confederate brigadier in the civil war. At the end of his present term in 1907 he will have served thirty years.

PENSIONERS MUST PAY
FULL POSTAGE ON VOUCHERS
Department Ruling Against Carelessness
Which has Caused Expense to Government.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 4.—Maj. A. T. Wood, United States Pension Agent, yesterday received notification from the Commissioner of Pensions, V. Warner, that, hereafter, all postage on pension vouchers must be fully paid before the checks for the amounts named in the vouchers can be made out and forwarded to the pensioners. Heretofore vouchers in great numbers have been received in the local office on which the postage has not been fully paid. It has been the custom for the Pension Department to pay the Postoffice Department the postage due and charge the item to the incidental account. Many of the vouchers of pensioners at a distance from the local office are executed by the postmaster and several of them sent in one envelope. Often three or four vouchers will be included in one envelope on which is placed only a two-cent stamp.

"The Government has lost large sums of money in the years past," said Maj. Wood, Pension Agent in Louisville, yesterday afternoon, "by not putting a similar order into effect years ago. We have nearly 28,000 pensioners on the roll here in this office, and it is very apparent it would not take more than a small per cent of them to create a large additional expense by failing properly to stamp their communications to the Pension Department. Upon this notification their receipt of their pensions will be very much delayed."

Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Moore Entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Moore entertained informally in the most pleasant manner Saturday evening at Oakmoor a few friends in compliment to Messrs. William and Archibald Young, of Louisville, who were guests of Clint Ruby, of Madisonville.

The evening was spent in social intercourse interspersed with delightful music, furnished by the young ladies. Dainty refreshments were served. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Will C. Morton, Misses Nevaline Morton, Ida Speed and Mary Ruby Morton and Messrs. Clint Ruby, of Madisonville, William and Archibald Young, of Louisville, and Misses Elizabeth Victory and Celeste Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Atkinson, of this city.

President Appoints First

Indian to West Point.
Washington, Feb. 3.—For the first time, an Indian is to enter West Point as a cadet. A red man is to become a soldier in order to fight, if need be, side by side with the white men, whose fathers fought his fathers and drove them back through the wilderness into the far west.

In the designation of appointment as cadets at large, made this morning, President Roosevelt has named Paul Knapp, an Indian youth. All the other principals and alternates appointed are sons of army officers. One of the interesting appointments is Thomas C. Thompson, a grandson of a former governor of the state of Tennessee. Still another is J. N. W. Neary, the son of an enlisted man of the United States army who was in service from 1861 to 1891.

May Move Henderson

Electric Street Railway.
Beloit, Wis., Feb. 2.—A. L. Rich, who heads the syndicate of Cincinnati people who have bought the local gas, electric and water plants and who has introduced a franchise application for an electric railway, will, it is believed, move to this city the electric railway he now operates in Henderson, Ky. It is said that the plant would pay better here than in the Kentucky city. It is possible, however, that he proposes to install a new system at Henderson and not risk the loss of an entirely new plant here.

KENTUCKIAN THE HEAD OF ARMY.

Gen. J. Franklin Bell Will Come Chief of Staff.
Wedding Gifts for Miss Roosevelt—Interesting Washington News.

Washington, Feb. 5.—The wedding gifts that will presently pour in on the White House will be little short of dazzling in their magnificence. Foreign governments and crowned heads are apparently trying to outdo each other in conferring rich presents. The German emperor will give a magnificent dinner service, while France will be the donor of some priceless Gobelin tapestries. Even little Cuba has set aside $25,000 to purchase a wedding gift for the daughter of the Colonel of Rough Riders. The jeweled presents being turned out by Tiffany in New York are said to be the most splendid ever made by that house. One of the finest is a pearl collar of ten strands, worth $31,000. There are also being manufactured a diamond tiara containing five hundred stones, two diamond collars and two bowknobs of the same precious stones. A silver service, to be the gift of the Rough Riders, is nearing completion, and the officers of the regular army have ordered a full-sized model of a Krag-Jorgensen rifle, made of 22 karat gold and bearing Miss Roosevelt's monogram on the stock in diamonds. The Roosevelt-Lockwood engagement ring, made by Tiffany, is a five-carat solitaire, set in platinum.

A Kentuckian will soon head the army of the United States. It is announced that Lieutenant-General John C. Bates will be succeeded as chief of the general staff, on his retirement in April, by Brigadier-General J. Franklin Bell, now head of the Infantry and Cavalry School at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. General Bell will at the same time be given the double stars of a major general, stepping into the shoes of General Frederick D. Grant, the senior brigadier. Major-General Henry C. Corbin will be promoted to the vacant lieutenant-generalship, so that for the first time since the position of chief of staff was created, its holder will not be the senior officer of the army. This is in line with the newly adopted policy of reserving the rank of lieutenant-general as a reward for long and distinguished service, and placing at the head of the general staff a young, energetic and scientific soldier, who could not only prepare plans for warfare, but who would also possess the physical and mental vigor necessary to their execution. General Bell was one of the youngest general officers in the army. He will be the first West Pointer to command it since the retirement of General Schofield in 1895, and its first commander who was too young to see service in the Civil War. General Bell entered West Point from Kentucky in 1874. His Philippine insurrection made his fortune. When it broke out Bell was a captain of cavalry. When the army was reorganized in 1902, he drew a brigadier's commission. Fifty years old last September, General Bell has fourteen years to serve before reaching the age of retirement.

The Hepburn rate regulation bill has already received some hard knocks in the course of the House debate. Representative John Wesley Gaines, during the first day's debate, took exception to the procedure for changing rates complained of, claiming that the Interstate Commerce Commission, the railroads, and the shippers were alike hampered by the bill as it stood, and that there was no provision whereby anyone, not a party to the original case, could obtain a rehearing on a rate once established by the Commission.

It is believed that the bill, as amended by the House, will be passed by the Senate, and "Joe" Sibley of Pennsylvania, have both spoken strongly against the bill. Mr. Perkins declares that it was impossible that there should be any active supervision of railroad rates under it. Effective supervision would need, instead of seven interstate commissioners, seven thousand, he said. Mr. Perkins warned his hearers that trouble would come from the claims of contesting localities, in pressing which business interests would be made subservient to the interests of politics.

The Agricultural Department has received from Abyssinia a fine specimen of Grevy's zebra, destined to become the ancestor of a new race of domestic animals, if the experiment proposed by the Bureau of Animal Industry proves successful. This is no less than the propagation of a draft animal that will withstand diseases fatal to the horse and the mule. The cross-strain of the horse and the zebra is said to produce an animal exceptionally hardy and sure-footed. Such "zebrules," bred in Scotland by Professor Ewart, are being used as pack animals by the British Army in India.

Representative Ollie James delights in cross-questioning Republican speakers. He tackled "Joe" Sibley Thursday last. Sibley was speaking against the Hepburn bill and charged that it was a step toward the socialistic ideas of Bryan and Hearst. The member from the first Kentucky district asked how the Hepburn bill came to right-about-face and follow such leadership. "I will put the responsibility of answering that on my colleagues of broader shoulders," replied Mr. Sibley, and when Mr. James sat down, shaking his head, the speaker added, to the amusement of the House: "The gentleman from Kentucky need not shake his gory locks at me; I am not responsible for it." The irrepressible James was ready with a retort. "Let me suggest to the gentleman from Pennsylvania," he said, "that my locks are just about as prominent as his own."

GRIST MILL THAT ONCE KILLED ITS PROPRIETOR
Lies in Ruins and Brings Death
Near its Operators.

Central City, Ky., Feb. 2.—The boiler in the Salsburg grist mill exploded here this morning, demolishing the mill and some outhouses one hundred feet distant. The mill was being run by Thomas Baxter, who had just stopped the engine to clean out the mill.

Liberty Holt was standing near the boiler, and after the accident was found covered by a heap of the debris on top of which the debris was heavily packed. His escape from death is considered marvelous, as the boiler was lifted over his head and into the air about thirty feet. Tom Hedson, a grandson of Thomas Baxter, crawled out of the debris. The boiler fell on a two-horse wagon that was standing in the alley, completely destroying the wagon and the harness. This was the same mill in which Mr. Salsburg lost his life about seven years ago, being caught in the belt. The loss is about $1,500, with no insurance.

Banker Weir and Son-in-Law.

Doubtful Funeral at Owensboro.
Owensboro, Ky., Feb. 3.—The funeral of James Weir, who died Wednesday, and of Robert S. Triplett, his son-in-law, who died Tuesday in Waco, Tex., took place this morning from the late residence of Mr. Weir on South Frederick street. There was a large assemblage of friends. Logan Murray, of Louisville, attended the funeral with the Owensboro bankers.

The following gentlemen composed the petit jury for this term of court: A. T.inder, O. E. Stalon, J. A. Smith, Delph Jackson, Edna Brown, L. Todd, Frank Todd, J. W. Ramsey, N. B. Rudd, A. E. MODERN HOTEL
FOR EARLINGTON.

Three Story Brick Structure Will Be Erected in a Short Time.

STOCK COMPANY BEING FORMED.

Earlington is to have a three-story brick hotel with stone foundation. This building will be erected three doors from the post office on the west side of the railroad and almost opposite the passenger station. It will be modern in all respects—steam heated, bath and electric lights. Three large sample rooms will be fitted up for traveling men. The rooms will be sufficiently large and a wide veranda above and below will surround the building on three sides. A stock company is being formed with W. C. McLeod at its head to erect this building. There are one hundred shares at $100 per share. Quite a number of these shares have already been taken up by some of Earlington's representative business men, and it is only a question of a short time before all stock will be absorbed.

This hotel will fill a long felt want in Earlington and will prove a great convenience to the traveling public. The promoters are enterprising citizens and should receive every encouragement in their undertaking.

HOME FROM THE NAVY.

Eldred Davis Here After Four Years' Service as Ship's Apothecary.

WILL PROBABLY GO TO MEDICAL COLLEGE.

Eldred Davis is home again, after a four year's service in the Navy, as apothecary and sometime ship's doctor in detail of duty, and expects to remain on land for a time at least. Some of his friends are urging him to enlist in the service of which he speaks highly and in which he has been so fitted in a successful and congenial way. Mr. Davis will probably remain in the States for a time at least and thinks to attend medical college and finish his education as a doctor.

Mr. Davis has seen much of the "uncivilized" world during his service in the Navy and talks very interestingly of his travels. When he enlisted he was assigned to duty on the U.S.S. Marbathea, and cruised in the Central American waters. Later he was in the Orient and on the U.S.S. Solus visited Chinese ports. On another vessel he saw something of Siberia, Southern China, Japan and the Philippines and the Southern Islands. On a gunboat in the Southern Islands was not the most attractive berth and usually the men shunned the experience in favor of assignments in more northern waters, nearer to civilization. But Eldred expected this duty to be followed by a trip home through the Suez canal. Later, however, when he got back to Manila he found that orders had been changed and he came to San Francisco on board the transport Lawton. After a hunt in the California mountains and visits to interesting coast points the final journey home came on board the supply ship Celtic, from San Francisco to New York, landing in the latter city late in January, just a few days before the expiration of his term of enlistment.

Eldred has increased in stature and is a well-developed man, naturally, wears a full grown mustache now, but he still wonders how the small boys of his former acquaintance could have grown to be such big fellows.

The readers of THE BEE, who have been deprived of interesting letters from Mr. Davis by the change of his route homeward, are voting for his re-enlistment after a completion of his medical course.

A man who walks for exercise is apt to be as big a liar as a fisherman.

Most of us have a horror of the man who whispers.

FORMER BANKER
W. B. Smith Will Make Good Losses to Bank.

W. B. Smith, formerly president of the Western National Bank of Louisville, will make good all losses sustained by this bank on account of bad loans made while he was president. The loss amounted to about $40,000 and Mr. Smith promised to turn over real estate to this amount to the bank. When these losses are made good it is confidently stated by intimate friends of Mr. Smith that the indictments now pending against him in the Federal court will be amended and probably released.

TRAINMASTER M. SEARGEANT

Will Be Married in June to an Evansville Lady.

Mr. M. Seargeant, the popular trainmaster of this division, will be married in June to Miss Carrie Diller, of Evansville. It is hoped that his example will not be lost on the other officials of the Henderson and St. Louis division. The diplomat W. K. Griffin is said to be the first out.

Special Series of Sermons.

Howard J. Brazelton, of the Christian Church, is preaching a series of sermons on "Christian Union," in which considerable interest is being manifested. The second of the series "The Points of Difference and Agreement Between the Christian Church and the Baptist Church," was preached last Sunday night.

The remaining subjects are as follows:

Feb. 11. "Points of Agreement and Difference Between the Christian Church and the Methodist Church."

Feb. 18. "Points of Agreement and Difference Between the Christian Church and the Presbyterian Church."

Feb. 25. "A Plea and a Plan for Union."

The purpose of these sermons is to promote a better understanding and a greater fellowship between the various denominations. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend these services.

Woman's Book Club.

The Woman's Book Club met yesterday afternoon at Madisonville with Mrs. Preston B. Ross. The leaders were Mrs. C. C. Givens and Mrs. Ruby Laffoon. Mrs. Givens' subject was "Manners and Customs of Early Romans." Mrs. Laffoon's subject was "Amusements." The roll call was attended to by the members quoting "Roman maxims." The current events were unusually interesting. Mrs. Ross served delicious refreshments, concluding a profitable afternoon of interesting study. There were present many "ladies of letters," but no "warriors bold."

Circuit Court.

Circuit court began the usual grind in Madisonville Monday. Although the weather was cold and a heavy snow lay on the ground quite a large number of people were present. The following compose the grand jury: J. H. Fox, Delph Morton, W. A. Foard, Jno. McGregor, E. M. Wicks, J. M. Whitsell, W. Brown, Jr., W. M. Crabtree, Goodman Davis, Frank Taylor, H. Beasley and Jno. Speed. W. A. Foard is foreman.

Ruby Laffoon and J. F. Dempsey were appointed at a meeting of the bar Monday afternoon to draw up a memorial to the Legislature asking that relief be given in the way of a special judge to try cases where the circuit judge is holding court elsewhere in the district. This petition was drawn up and has been forwarded to the General Assembly of the Commonwealth at Frankfort.

Business Men's Bible Class.

A Business Men's Bible Class has been organized in the Sunday section of the Christian Church, with Judge Chas. C. Givens as president and Wm. Phillips as secretary. The purpose is to aid the Sunday school by interesting more men in its work and to promote the social life of all. The class is growing steadily. Howard J. Brazelton is teacher.

MINING NOTES

No Eight-Hour Law on Canal.

When the urgent deficiency appropriation bill came up for final vote in the House many members refrained from voting because of the paragraph repealing the eight-hour law in so far as it affects alien labor on the canal zone. With one exception the Democrats voted against the bill, but the Republicans scattered. The eight-hour amendment was agreed to by 120 to 100.

Miners and Operators Disagree.

The joint scale committee of soft coal operators and miners at Indianapolis had locked horns by Wednesday of last week over the demand for an eight-hour day and a 12 1/2 per cent wage increase. The proposition to put a 14-year age limit on boys in the mines was, however, agreed to.

On Thursday the convention decided definitely in favor of a strike if an increase in wages is not granted. The operators no less firmly announced their stand against an increase. The convention took steps toward the accumulation of a vast strike fund, a tax of $1 a week being levied upon every miner in the entire organization. After this action the convention adjourned sine die.

Skeleton Found in a Mine.

Barbourville, Ky., Feb. 5.—While exploring the old Mayes coal mine, one mile from town, workmen encountered a human skeleton within about twenty feet of the entry. The mine has been abandoned for seven years. The skeleton was in a natural position and gives no evidence of foul play.

The only union mine in Knox county is shut down on account of a strike over some question concerning methods of loading coal. All the other mines there are working as usual.

The big shaft of the West Kentucky Coal Company at Sturgis, Ky., which has been shut down since the strike of union men, several months ago, is now running with nearly a full crew of non-union miners, many of them colored. The lower mine of the company also resumed operation this week.

The East Jellico Coal Company, of Pennsylvania, is preparing to develop property to be reached by a lateral extension of the new Cumberland railroad, arrangements are practically concluded and work will begin with the opening of spring.

R. L. Forsythe, of Providence, has decided to abandon his coal mine near the flour mill of Justice and Parish and will make a new opening on the land recently purchased by him from Ross Givens. A shaft will be sunk and a switch run from the new mine to the tracks of the Providence Coal Co. Work is to be commenced on the mine and switch as soon as possible.

Foreman Jno. Carroll, of Victoria mines, visited friends here Saturday.

Roland Rich, of Central City, was in the city Sunday. Mahanov City, Pa., Feb. 5.—The collieries throughout the anthracite region have orders to operate with full capacity until next April. A number of washeries in the Schuylkill field that have been closed will resume operations this week on full time. The companies expect to add 3,000,000 tons of coal to their storage stock in the next eight weeks.

NEBO'S NEWSY LETTER

A few days ago, as Ruby Cates, of near here, was returning home from Madisonville and while crossing a bad place in the road, his horse got entangled and fell on Mr. Cate's foot and leg, fracturing the bone and hurting him badly. He had to be hauled home, where Dr. Crow reduced the fracture. He is getting along as well as could be expected under the circumstances but will be laid up for some time. The roads are reported to be in a terrible condition between Maudou and Madisonville.

Prof. H. B. Wheeler's school here completed the first 6 month term last Friday with an entertainment at the town hall. To say his pupils acquitted themselves creditably, would not be more than half expressing it. Little Raymond Walker carried off the honors of the evening, being lustily cheered by the audience. He had to return on the stage the second time. His part was entitled, "The Nigger and the Mule." The whole performance was a great credit to Prof. Wheeler and his worthy assistant, Miss Richie Key. We hope the Professor will give us another entertainment in the near future.

In regard to that artillery being a hoax, we are forced to say we were mistaken. We do not mean by this that we have lied, but just mistaken. For further information we will refer you to Uncle Bob.

Now in regard to that graceful clerk who spoke of last week. There being some controversy as to who it is, we will further describe him, as we do not want to be personal. In dress he reminds you of a suit of clothes on a bean pole. He parts his hair in the middle, sticks his pencil behind his ear and chews gum, and further looks like he had been raising a fire in the cook stove.

Our new rink we spoke of last week is running in full blast with Dr. Tifford as conductor. You ought to see the Doctor with the rollers on. I tell you he glides over the floor as gracefully as an ox cart.

Beckham and Lieut. Gov. Thorne on a visit to Chicago. It is reported that the Senator from Western Kentucky fit the big chair as though he had been made for it.

HEAVY TAX ON THE MINER.

A tax of $1 a week has been levied upon every miner in the entire organization of United Mine Workers of America, for the purpose of accumulating a strike fund by April 1st, at which time the union miners threaten a general strike. If such a program is carried out the union miners have scant time to save a pitance for future support before the strike may be called. Sixty days and less is a brief period in which to lay by for the rainy day after April 1st. Particularly since the $1 a week Mitchell strike fund assessment must be paid before the savings account can be thought of.

BLIND TIGERS AND UNCLE SAM

Representative Bowie, of Alabama, has brought out some interesting "blind tiger" statistics in the present investigation brought about by the proposed legislation in Congress against the issuance of Government licenses in sections where the selling of liquor is prohibited by state laws. Mr. Bowie showed that in eight States the internal revenue officials had issued 11,370 Government licenses to persons in prohibition districts. Each of these meant a "blind tiger." The deduction is clear that the Government is therefore engaged in the business of breeding this very objectionable animal. Mr. Bowie's figures for Kentucky showed 2,070 "blind tigers" fostered by Federal license. Of course there are other "blind tigers" and of course many "boot-leggers" do not possess Government licenses. But the Federal Government is responsible for these licensed "blind tigers" and it is certainly time that Uncle Sam should mend his ways and mind the moral example set him by his grandchildren. If the dear old gentleman must have his drinks let him not force them upon his youthful progeny.

Humor and Philosophy

CHANCE.

Unto the music made by Chance
The birds in the world do not dance;
Unto our pet and polished plan
Chance fits a bright and polished can.
And when we feel puffed up and strong
Chance plays horse with us right along.
When we have laid our plans to get
With the utmost nonchalance
'Tis then the schemes are cooked with care
And leaves us dangling in the air.
You see a fellow big as noon,
And puffed up like a toy balloon;
He thinks his great and massive brain
Alone his progress can explain.
Chance put him there, and it will call
Some day and hand him out a fall.

We take a flier on the crop;
Chance boosts the price or lets it drop.
We put our money in a show;
Chance kills the thing or makes it grow.
The wise men tell in advance
We take a wife—we take a chance.
Chance rules the camp, the court, the grove,
The barracks and the kitchen stove;
Our very brightest dreams it halts
And makes our plans into a snarl.
Though at its mandates we may roar,
It shows us just where we get off.

Practical Astrology.
"He foretells things by the stars."
"I suppose a policeman's star means trouble."

The Coming Airship.
We should hesitate about turning up our noses at the fat, impotent flying machine which, though it now sticks closer to the earth than a poor relation to a rich uncle, may some day force us to turn up our noses to see it as it condescends to look down on us.
Tall oaks from little acorns grow, and possibly tall flights may yet grow from big, unwieldy balloons. You never can tell, and even if you did tell who could swear that what you told was so?

It is only ten years ago that the automobile picked itself up bodily by the tires and lifted itself out of the toy class, and who can tell but what the flying machine may give itself similar treatment? Then, again, the future looks like the inhabitants of Africa when we remember that balloons have been about in the same state of mind ever since the memory of the oldest inhabitant.

Her Specialty.
She couldn't bake a custard pie.
Nor bake a loaf of bread.
Nor put a wash out on the line.
Nor sew, nor make a bed.
She couldn't boil potatoes right.
Nor just plain wash prepare.
Nor turn a plate of toast out crisp.
Nor cook a breakfast rare.
Not one of these was in her line;
She wasn't built that way.
You'd think the man who married her
Would have delivered her
But she could rustle out each week
And bring in thirty per.
And that's the reason why the men
Made goo goo eyes at her.

Needed Strong Treatment.
"He wants to get out an injunction against the piano next door."
"Huh! What does he think an injunction is anyway?"
"He doesn't know, but he hopes it is something like an ax."

Warned.
"Somehow the best seem to know when I am coming and get away."
"They ought to. You drop them a line as soon as you arrive, don't you?"

The Reason.
The dog's bark, says the best advice,
Is much worse than his bite.
The bite is over in a trice;
The bark keeps up all night.

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

Honesty that needs constant boosting by its possessor is the kind that will stand watching with both eyes.

Straight talk is what a man can't deliver when he returns home at 2 in the morning, and what his wife can and does.

When a widow succeeds in getting a bachelor segregated and pushed off to a corner he may as well throw up his hands.

It is because the junk man is somewhat particular that more people are not spirited away mysteriously.

An up to date girl does not kick on the regulation marriage ceremony. She simply has her fingers crossed when she promises to obey.

All science needs do now to break the camel's back is to discover that shoveling snow is healthy exercise.

When words fall a man some woman is generally on hand, with a simply large enough for both.

To Abolish Capital Punishment.

The Ohio senate last week by a vote of 22 to 14, passed a bill abolishing capital punishment for murder in the first degree, but providing that the death penalty may be inflicted for a second commission of that crime. At the same time the bill to abolish capital punishment for the assassination of the President of the United States or the governor of the state was defeated.

Church Leaders Watching Canada.

The recent adoption of a favorable report by the committee of the Presbyterian, Methodist and Congregational churches in Canada on a plan of organic union, to be known as the United Church of Canada, is commanding the attention of Protestants in the Toronto Globe characterized the report as "the most remarkable ecclesiastical document issued in Protestant Christendom since the reformation." The Pittsburgh Presbyterian Banner says that while such union seems impossible here, it appears to be possible only a few miles north of us, and adds, "What the Spirit can do there he can do here." The Christian Advocate thinks it possible that all the leading churches of English origin except the Church of England may unite with such a church as is here proposed. The Philadelphia Church Standard points out that the Methodists in Canada number 916,000, the Presbyterians 812,000 and the Congregationalists 28,000, making a total of 1,786,000, or nearly one-third of the population of Canada.

The Courier-Journal to Take Nineteen Young Women Abroad as Its Guests.

The Courier-Journal is conducting a popularity contest that eclipses anything of the kind ever promoted in this section. Briefly, the Courier-Journal proposes to take on a seven weeks' tour abroad in young women from Kentucky and Southern Indiana, all expenses paid, from the day the party leaves Louisville, Jan. 15, until it returns to "The Old Kentucky Home," August 29. To give all a chance the Courier-Journal has divided Louisville and Kentucky and Southern Indiana into 18 districts, and the most popular young women from each district is to be the one to make the tour. The nineteenth young woman is to be selected in another way. Readers of the Courier-Journal are to select the guests for the paper by ballot. It is estimated that the trip alone will cost the Courier-Journal about $15,000, to say nothing of incidentals and other necessary expenses. Write the Courier-Journal, Louisville, Ky., for a list of candidates and full details of the tour.

Around the Farm

The Selection of Corn.

The corn experts are finally beginning to learn a few things about plain old corn. By selecting ears having long shanks—that is, the branch which connects the ear with the stalk—the length of the shank has been increased nearly two feet in five years' breeding. By selecting ears with tall stalks the height of the stalk has been increased almost three feet. By selecting ears from plants with wide leaves the average width of the leaf has been extended and by the product of stalks with narrow leaves the shank has been decreased. By selecting ears high on the stalk the average height of all the ears in a field has been raised and by selecting low ears all the ears have been lowered. By taking ears high in feeding constituents the value of the crop has been enhanced as a feed and by taking ears from healthy, vigorous stalks, planting them separately and preserving the seed corn by the most productive yields the acre yield has been enlarged enormously. In ordinary corn growing a large percentage of barren stalks occurs as well as stalks which produce rubbish and dwarf ears.

A Word to the Wise.

Give the hen meat.
A scent (faint) spot is the difficult of a dollar.
Of course the noisier soil has been made ready.
New land or sod land should be plowed at the first opportunity.
The farmer who uses the poorest part of his place for pasture is likely to lose it by it.
You can raise the frame of a calf without milk, but not the picture of a good animal.
Hold the red-hot tongs on a rusty bolt to loosen it. Heating screws in the same way will make them come easily.—E. B.
Don't leave the plows or other farm machinery exposed to the weather. A little ordinary oil now will save money and trouble in future.
Gopher Dope.
To destroy gophers, dissolve strychnine in water, to which a little vinegar has been added. Soak corn in this and place three or four kernels down all the holes. Repeat every few days until you have the pest eradicated.
Starch from Sweet Potatoes.
Dr. George W. Wiley, chief of the bureau of chemistry of the agricultural department, holds out great possibilities to the growers of sweet potatoes. He says the day will come when the sweet potato will furnish the starch of the world. The possibilities of the yam are far beyond anything at present realized.

Points for Orchardists.

High, well-drained land is suitable for cherries.
Do you believe in fumigating nursery stock before planting?
It does not pay a farmer to raise varieties of apples that have not been demonstrated by long usage to be good.
Do not leave rubbish about the roots of trees whose bark is still smooth and tender. The rubbish is a harbor for mice.
Young trees are standing in or near the grass should be protected from mice by wrappers, otherwise the loss may be very heavy.
Do not pile manure close around tree trunks. It makes a safe harbor for mice; later they will gnaw the bark and kill the tree.
Do not set out an orchard of any kind on virgin soil. It should be tilled for some years before being given over to the use of fruit trees.
We recently saw a traction engine in a peach orchard pulling out old trees. The engine was at the crutch—a chain fastened to the top, and the engine walked off with them as a man would pull up a tomato vine!

Pruning Grapes.

Grapevines can be pruned any time after the leaves have fallen. Frequently no further pruning is needed than to lay the vines on the ground. They should be pruned first.
Apple Trees and Rabbits.
When rabbits run in the orchard, it is not safe to let young apple trees go through the winter without protection, declares the Forest Service. As other food becomes scarce the rabbits are almost sure to bark the young trees, especially those where there is snow on the ground. I have seen various preventives recommended, and, among them, robbing the trees with soap. I tried this last winter and lost some of my best trees—not only by rabbits, but by the preventive soap. It killed the bark and the trees gradually died during the summer. The best thing I have tried as a protection is wrapping the tree with common newspapers, folded to three or four thicknesses and tied on with twine or the ravellings of a tow sack. Expert hands can use the preventive very rapidly and it seems to be perfectly successful. If you could be sure of killing all the rabbits that would be another good plan.

Fertilize Apple Trees.

It pays for fertilizing apple trees. It is a great mistake to see them in old worn-out fields and never manure or mulch them. Orchards that are kept highly manured bear every year, while those not fertilized bear only one crop in two years.
Winter Hints.
The winter is a good time to hunt up the bag worms on the trees. Branches that are infested with fruit trees should be left on the ground, but should be burned.

Look out for mice in the orchard. They will prove very destructive to the young trees after the snow comes.

Popular cuttings should be taken in early winter and should be taken in sawdust or sand until spring, then planted six to ten inches apart in straight rows.

ENTERS PLEA FOR DIVORCE

THE COUNTESS DE CASTELLANE SEEKS A SEPARATION.

The Count Weeps, But His Pleadings Are in Vain—May Be Given a Pension

Paris, Feb. 6.—Countess Boni de Castellane (formerly Anna Gould) Countess entered a plea for divorce. Representatives of the countess and the count appeared before a judge, who, according to the French law, endeavored to arrange a reconciliation before allowing a definite suit to proceed. It is said that the judge's efforts were not successful and that the suit will progress, but owing to the secrecy in divorce proceedings here, it is difficult to confirm this report.

Rumors have been current for a long time that the countess had decided that any continuation of her relations with her husband was impossible and her removal from the Castellane residence to a hotel in the center of Paris gave support to the belief that she had finally decided to apply for a divorce. Sensational reports have been circulated with reference to the countess's conduct and the name of a prominent society leader of Paris, a woman of very high standing, has been mentioned in connection with the affair.

The countess said to have been repentant, and to have wept, but his tears and pleadings have been in vain. The Gould girl is gone from Paris for good. He may have a pension of 30,000 francs ($5,000 a year), but beyond that nothing.

THE UNITED STATES NAVY

The Kaiser Has Stood It Up On Paper, and Will Present It to Reichstag.

Berlin, Feb. 6.—Kaiser Wilhelm, who, for many years has devoted close attention to the English navy and compared the same with the German navy, has decided to present to the Reichstag for the purpose of creating a feeling in favor of a stronger German navy, is now turning his attention to the American navy. He has drawn up a huge diagram, making close comparisons of the vessels of each fleet and containing a sketch of every American warship. Beneath the sketch of each ship are details regarding the tonnage, speed, armament, etc. Photographic copies of this will be presented to the Reichstag and the German Navy League. An autograph sketch will also be presented to President Roosevelt, the German naval attaché at Washington making the presentation speech.

TORN BY CATCHING SCALP

Eczema Broke Out Also on Hands and Limbs—Suffering Intense—Doctors Said Too Old to Be Cured—An Old Soldier of 80 Years Declares:

"CUTICURA TREATMENT IS A BLESSING"

"At all times and to all people I am willing to testify to the merits of Cuticura. It saved me from worse than the tortures of hell, about the year 1900, with itching on my scalp and temples, and afterwards it commenced to break out on my limbs. I was advised to use salt and water, which I did, to no effect. I then went to a Surgeon, who commenced treating me with a wash of borax. This treatment did me no good, but rather aggravated the disease. Then told him I would go and see a physician in Erie. The reply was that I could go anywhere, but as a case of eczema like mine could not be cured; that I was too old (80). I went to an eminent doctor in the city of Erie and treated with him for six months, with little results. I had read of the Cuticura Remedies, and I was strongly tempted to give them a trial, so I sent for the Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Resolvent, and continued taking the Resolvent until I had taken six bottles, stopping it to take the Pills. I was now getting better. I took two baths a day, and at night I let the water of the Soap dry on. I used the Ointment with great frequency, washing in warm water, to stop the itching at once. I am now cured."

The Cuticura treatment is a blessing and should be used by every one who has itching of the skin. I can't say any more, and thank God that He has given the world such a curative. You can use this letter as you please. I have very much to recommend it. Wm. H. Avery, 3303 Mt. Vernon St., Philadelphia, Pa., August 2, 1905.

CLARENCE CLARK DEAD.

Crushed Between Drawheads Yesterday Morning, Died Last Night.

INJURED WHILE WORKING AT COKE PLANT

Clarence Clark, second son of R. N. Clark, was fatally hurt yesterday morning while working at the coke works under loading slack coal from railroad cars.

A loaded car was dropped down to bump an empty out of the way. Tillman, Clark, an older brother to Clarence, was "riding the broke" on the loaded car. The empty car started rolling after the impact but, on account of the cold, stopped after moving a short distance. Clarence thought both cars were still moving and tried to pass between to check a wheel on the other side. He was caught between the drawheads and crushed through the hips and lower abdominal region. He was at once removed to his father's home and surgeons were immediately summoned. Everything was done that skill could offer, but in vain. The injured boy died about last midnight after much suffering.

Clarence Clark was a member of the M. E. Church, South, and a noble Christian boy, whose footsteps rarely, if ever, strayed from the straight and narrow path of Christian duty.

I haven't got any statement to make except to say I am happily married to Mr. Mizner. Announce this for me in your papers. But please don't say that I am 30 years old."

Then Mr. Mizner said: "Now there isn't anything more to say. I am tired and sleepy, and am going to bed." The certificate of marriage was filed Friday with the bureau of vital statistics.

CONFRONTED WITH RUIN

Suicide of Rev. George H. Simmons, of Peoria, Ill., Following Revelations Affecting His Morality.

Peoria, Ill., Feb. 7.—Faced with ruin and disgrace because of revelations made during the past two or three days concerning his private character, Rev. George H. Simmons, pastor of the First Baptist church, president of the Interstate Savings bank and the People's Savings bank, manager of ex-Gov. Yates' senatorial campaign for Peoria county, committed suicide at his home on the East Bluff by swallowing cyanide of potassium.

Last Saturday complaint against Dr. Simmons was made to the state's attorney, following testimony by members of the Boys' Baptist brigade, at a church investigation.

Saturday afternoon he was advised by three prominent citizens to leave Peoria because of the reports against his character and his seeming inability to make a proper defense.

He had been a persistent advocate for reform in politics. Runs were made on both banks of which he was president, and Tuesday morning the People's Savings bank did not open its doors.

The People's savings bank has liabilities of $115,000 and assets variously estimated from $75,000 to $100,000, principally in real estate.

Officers of the bank refused to give out any statement of the result of the investigation of the bank's condition other than to firmly insist that the bank would be solvent. Under the law the partnership is dissolved by the death of Dr. Simmons and the affairs of the bank must be wound up in the probate court.

No proof has been produced to show that the suicide was a defaulter although the secrecy maintained by the officers of his private bank has led to much uneasiness. Mr. Simmons had little property himself, and his estate is not expected to run above $50,000. His interest in the interstate bank was but $1,000. The interstate bank suffered withdrawals of $20,000 Tuesday, but paid all demands.

LOCOMOTIVE BLASTS

The Illinois Central Railroad Company has contracted for grading a belt line road from the Tennessee Central division, traversing the Southern part of Hopkinsville and connecting with the L. & N. This means about $50,000 worth of other improvements at once.

Several express cars for the Florida East Coast Railway passed through here last week, enroute to Jacksonville, Florida, from Foreman, Ill., where they had been constructed. They differed from the cars in use on this division, the length being greater, and were built for handling the fruit and vegetable crop of the state.

Another wire has been run in at the depot here, on account of the heavy work one operator was compelled to do. Instead of one man having both north and south end business to handle, an additional operator is added, night and day, dividing the division into a north and south truck. Operator Jas. Sanders, who has been on nights for some time, has charge of the north end during the day.

Operator Bell, of Somerset, Ky., succeeds Operator Jas. Sanders on the south truck at nights. This place is filled by Operator Pat Duffy in the day time.

Operator Cravens, who has been stationed at the north block at Fleming Curve, is working at the depot nights on the north end.

A switchman in the yard here who is popular with his fellow employees and universally liked by all that know him, received a shower bath in the north end of the yard last week. It remains for the Henderson division boys to learn who he is and how it happened.

With the interurban service inaugurated between Erie and Nashville, Tenn., there are now 22 trains scheduled on the south end between Guthrie and Nashville every 24 hours. This is running trains some and business continues good. It will be only a short time until the Henderson division will run trains every hour.

The Government cattle quarantine lines closed last week and the cattle movement in Tennessee and other Southern States will be restricted until the opening of the lines again next fall. The line runs through Tennessee, cutting the State from east to west. Most of the cattle that were to move North for stock and feeding purposes this winter have been shipped, but many large herds are yet to go for immediate slaughter. Cattle can be shipped any direction for immediate slaughter regardless of the quarantine lines, but none can be shipped North for other purposes until the next "open season."

The four railroads entering Nashville have agreed upon a rate of one and one-third fare to Nashville on account of the engagement of Mme. Calve, of Feb. 15, and for "Ben Hur" the week of Feb. 19. It is understood that a similar rate will also be made for the engagement of Madame Bernhardt on March 8. The dates of sale, however, have not been announced. It is expected that several persons of this city will take advantage of the cheap rate and attend "Ben Hur."

Dispatcher R. C. Mason has severed his connection with the L. & N. and will go to Mt. Pleasant, Tex., where he will work for the Cotton Belt Ry.

Work has commenced on the south yard extension. Cars of slag are being emptied next to the Arnold mine alongside the main track and when this is raised to the necessary height additional tracks will be laid. The material used in this work comes from the old clam banks near No. 11 mine.

Yardmaster Joe Fortner, of Hopkinsville, visited friends in this city Sunday.

Dispatcher Wood, for a month in charge 2nd truck on north end, has tendered his resignation and will shortly leave to take a similar place with the Northwestern. Mr. Wood has made friends with our people, who join THE BEE in wishing him success.

Conductor J. B. Holcomb of this division, has tendered his resignation and will seek employment in other fields.

Dispatcher N. H. Wharton, who has been absent in Virginia for several weeks, has returned to Earlington and will work 2nd truck on north end.

Dispatcher E. M. Orr is one of the luckiest men on this division. He always manages to keep his trains moving, keep out of trouble and this week drew the $100 diamond offered by Kruckmire & Cohen, the Evansville jeweler. No 16,730 was the lucky number.

The L. & N. is laying a long siding at Hopkinsville north of the river.

On account of the heavy increase in the chief dispatcher's office at this place Mr. Griffin has asked for a clerk and stenographer. The office will likely be filled in a short time.

The last trick dispatchers were quite busy Tuesday morning. The batteries were frozen and refused to work until Dispatchers Featherstone and Brooks thawed them by appliances of red-hot poker and boiling water.

Fires are being placed along the right of way between Earlington and Bardsley for the double track.

Work in the south end of the Earlington yard is just at present at a standstill on account of the exceeding cold weather. The contractors expect to resume work, however, as soon as the weather will permit.

Dispatcher Carroll A. Moore this week purchased from Mrs. O. P. Webb, of Nashville, a residence on Railroad street. Mr. Moore expects to add considerable improvements in the near future.

Dispatcher Ed. Martin and wife are on a trip South. They expect to be gone several days. Copier Davidson is filling the place of Mr. Martin and Operator Bell is in the place of Davidson.

Operator Hoffman is working down stairs in place of Operator Bell, who is copying in the dispatcher's office.

Is Disease a Crime?

Not very long ago, a popular magazine published an editorial article in which the writer asserted, in substance, that all diseases should be regarded as criminal. Certain it is, that much of the sickness and suffering of mankind is due to the violation of certain of Nature's laws. But to say that all sickness should be regarded as criminal, must appeal to every reasonable individual as radically wrong.

It would be harsh, unsympathetic, cruel, yet criminal, to condemn the poor, weak, over-worked housewife who slaves under the heavy load of household cares and burdens, various displacements of pelvic organs and other derangements peculiar to her sex.

Frequent bearing of children, with its exacting demands upon the system, coupled with the care, worry and labor of rearing a large family, is often the cause of weakness, derangements and debility which are aggravated by the many household cares, and the hard and never-ending work which the mother is called upon to perform. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—says that one of the greatest obstacles to the cure of this class of maladies is the fact that the poor, over-worked housewife can not get the needed rest from her many household cares and labor to enable her to secure from the use of his "Prescription" its full benefit. It is a matter of frequent experience, he says, in his extensive practice in these cases, that those in which his treatment fails, by reason of the patient's inability to obtain much rest, work long enough to be cured. Those suffering from prolapsus, anteversion, or other displacement of the uterus, or other displacement of the woman's organs, his "Favorite Prescription" they obtain soon being very mild, or for long periods, on their feet. All heavy lifting or straining of any kind should also be avoided. As such out-door air as possible, with moderate, light exercise is also very important. The "Favorite Prescription" will do the rest.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 31 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound.

If sick consult the Doctor, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held sacredly confidential.

Filthy Lucre.
Some people may decry it.
And deprecate its chase.
But money is a handy thing
To have about the place.
Of course the stuff is tainted—
That's always understood—
But still with all that drawback
It does look pretty good.

A dollar in your pocket
Will make the world look bright;
It will make two add more color;
A five makes black seem white;
With twenty you feel cocky
And certain of your worth,
And make the bill a fifty,
At once you own the earth.

Besides, if on the needful
You are not rated shy,
The world will always turn around
And how as you pass by.
And more than that, the ladies
Bouquets at you will fling
And intimate that you are just
Too cute for anything.

It's handy to have money,
At least enough to do.
We need it in our business
And in our pleasures too.
We need it in the household,
We need it on the cars.
And it might help, I fancy,
Though we were up in Mars.

All old time coughs syrup bind the bowels. This is true. A new idea was advanced two years ago in Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. This remedy acts on the mucous membranes of the throat and lungs and loosens the bowels at the same time. It expels all cold from the mucous membranes, relieves coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc.

"BEN-HUR."

To be Staged in Nashville, Tenn.

When Klaw & Erlanger's colossal and brilliant spectacular production of General Lew Wallace's "Ben-Hur" was staged in Nashville two years ago, it created a veritable furor in this vicinity and hundreds journeyed there to witness it. Now that the announcement is made that "Ben-Hur" is to be again presented in Nashville the week of February 19th to 24th, with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday in addition to the six evening performances, it is more than probable that the same interest will be manifested.

The management of the Vendome Theatre, Nashville, will give careful attention to all orders for seats through the mail, providing the order is accompanied by a remittance. The sale of seats starts on February 15, all orders should be filed prior to that date. The scale of prices ranges from 50 cents to $2.00. All railroads entering Nashville are to make low excursion rates for those desiring to attend this performance.
